However, use of Audio Clips in "Paid Online Projects" or "Paid Streams" (e.g., paid online games/courses/podcasts, etc.), for which customers pay to play/access/view and for which fees are collected and the number of sales of Project exceeds 10,000, requires obtaining a Mass Market License.

Film and theatrical festivals are covered by the License and Licensee may use Audio Clips in films and theatrical releases that are participating in contests and festivals. However, use in commercially released films and theatrical releases that are shown to the general/mass public and where a fee is collected requires obtaining a Mass Market License.

Broadcast and public performance use requires filling in and submitting a cue sheet (reporting use of music) to a local Performing Rights Organization (hereafter "PRO") or providing a broadcaster with the proper cue sheet. No additional fees are associated with submission of cue sheets for producers. Cue sheet submissions are required for Audio Clips registered with a PRO by a composer/publisher. If a producer of Audio Clips is not a member of any PRO or if its Audio Clips are not registered with any PRO, then reporting use of Audio Clips is not required.
